Introducing Resource Security and Training Australia

Resource Security and Training Australia is a locally owned and operated security company based in Lawnton that specialises in all facets of security to include but not limited to: mining, maritime, government, corporate, sport / nightclubs, crowd control and events. We know our clients rely on us to be an innovator within the security industry, have proven best practices along with documented methodologies and cost effective solutions and this is exactly what we provide. Our practice is founded on professionalism, integrity and exceptional client service.

“We pride ourselves on keeping up-to-date with an ever changing industry”.

Resource Security and Training Australia's expertise revolutionises security from: implementation, recruitment (career minded professionals), targeting and client analysis, consulting, training, emergency management and employee eligibility programs to ensure service performance indicators are met, maintained and managed effectively and this is something our current clients will attest to. Our proactive approach has also afforded very strong working relationships with local police, liquor licensing and the general community

Through on-going incomparable service measures and reliable security tailored solutions, Resource Security and Training Australia has experienced exceptional growth.

Why utilise Resource Security and Training Australia

In summary we believe that we are the most security conscientious company in Brisbane and surrounding regions. We continually give our clients security professionals to prevent the potential adverse effects on their business and incorporate the personalised service they deserve. Our attention to detail is unmatched and our reputation is impeccable in both service and products.

Benefits

Our management team have worked and consulted across a range of corporate and various industry security sites and assignments across Australia and on projects overseas. The management team will tirelessly visit every site ensuring quality control practices are followed; internal support is given to our staff and meet with our clients with a commitment toward long term relationships.

Safety

- We take the safety and security of our employees and our clients very seriously and seek at all times to build teams that are personally responsible, take initiative and put safety first. Through a policy of risk minimisation and risk avoidance, appropriate training and careful selection, we strive to ensure the safety and well-being of our staff as they carry out their duties.

“We would be very pleased to offer our achievements in key service practices to your facility”
